Friday – Dodgeball:

Children will take part in fun and adapted dodgeball games, developing their throwing, catching, dodging and movement skills. They will learn to move safely around the playing area, follow simple rules and work as part of a team. Games will be adapted to suit different abilities, with a focus on teamwork, confidence and having fun.

All clubs run between 3:20-4:20pm. Children are escorted from their classrooms at the end of the school day by a member of school staff to club registration. Parents/Carers need to collect their children at 4:20pm from the front playground. Club cost reflects resourcing costs and are free where possible.

Behaviour – clubs should be fun and safe for all children. Please note that any poor behaviour may result in your child losing their place at the club.
